For the representation of the Christian God as being sited quite apart in "the supernatural" world signals the construction of a secular space that begins to emerge in early modernity. Such a space permits "nature" to be reconceived as manipulatable material, determinate, homogeneous, and subject to mechanical laws.

When we care more about what people think of us than respecting the ways of God, then we are secular. 3. You are led by money not by the Holy Spirit. Whenever you prioritize money over God's will, you are secular. This is why so many so-called believers work so many hours; then they rarely have time to participate in a faith community.
